Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

College Promise Program: Student U's college program provides academic, social/emotional, and financial support for students during their years in college. Staff supported 150 students in 2021 through in-person meetings on their campus, phone check-ins, topic-focused retreats and connections to on-campus resources for each student. Families of college students are supported during the advising, enrolling, and sending periods through workshops to educate parents on the road ahead for students and the ways they can support their children.

Learning Center: Student U's Learning Center operated from September 2020 until June 2021 while schools were closed to in-person learning because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Student U opened The W.G. Pearson Center on a daily basis to about 100 students who needed a safe place to complete their remote learning during that school year. Students enrolled at no cost to their family and were provided with breakfast, snack, and lunch, as well as reliable WiFi, supervision and learning support, and free-time activities in community with other students.

Sharing Our Best Practices: While we may not be able to serve every student in Durham directly, our ability to share what we've learned allows us to expand our impact in Durham and beyond. We are working to make sure our insights are accessible to Durham Public Schools, practitioners, and other key stakeholders, while also ensuring our teacher alumni are prepared to take on leadership roles in our community.

Student and Family-Led Advocacy: Student U supports student- and family-led advocacy and change efforts in our city and beyond. Through ongoing engagement and regular

Any person with a potential conflict may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, they shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction
